

1 Middle Ages

Simon de Montfort, 5th Earl of Leicester, was a French nobleman and knight. De Montfort ...

John of Gaunt was a son of Edward III and the father of Henry IV ...

2 18th and 19th Century

Arthur Wellesley was born in Dublin as Arthur Wesley. (His surname was later changed to Wellesley, which is how he is now remembered.) His grandfather was Richard Wesley, 1st Baron Mornington. Young Arthur ... His first battle was the battle of Boxtel ... Wellesley became a general during the Peninsular Campaign ... He was subsequently awarded a dukedom after the battle of Waterloo and became the 1st Duke of Wellington ... The Duke of Wellington is best remembered for his military career, but he was also a politician. Wellington became Prime Minister in 1828 ...

3 20th Century

Konstantin Volkov ...

Index

	B	Henry IV, 1
battles			V
	Boxtel (1794), 1
	Waterloo (1815), 1
	D	Volkov
		Konstantin, 1
de Montfort			W
	Simon, 5th Earl of Leicester, 1
	J	Wellesley
John of Gaunt, 1		Arthur, 1st Duke of Wellington, 1
	K	Wesley
		Arthur, see Arthur, 1st Duke of Wellington
kings		Richard, 1st Baron Mornington, 1
	Edward III, 1		